Streamlined Activity Manpower Document (S-AMD)

July 2013

CAPT Mary Lewellyn
Commanding Officer

CDR Aaron J. Wagner
Executive Officer

Mr. George Vogel
Technical Director

Objectives

- Understand the purpose of the Streamlined Activity Manpower Document (S-AMD)
- Demonstrate the ability to interpret a S-AMD

Streamlined Activity Manpower Document (S-AMD)

Goals:

- Easy-to-read Manpower Document as quick, ready reference for day-to-day manpower management.
- Streamlined display of an activity's manpower requirements, authorizations and manpower position specific data fields.

S-AMD

- The S-AMD report reflects a single line of position data that has been reformatted to identify specific manpower information making it easier to read and to understand
- The S-AMD report streamlines the information into a quick, ready reference for all levels.

Characteristics of the S-AMD

- Reduces the number of data headers (as compared to AMD)
- Data headers and data now aligned
- Requirement and Authorization data now displayed as a single line
- Similar Officer, Enlisted, and Civilian data is aligned
  - e.g., Officer Designator, Enlisted Rate, Civilian Occupational Series
- Focuses on "positional" data vice non-positional data
